DAY DRINKS

OUR APPROACH TO DAY DRINKING...

Whether you're on a health kick or feeling a little worse for wear, we've got something to help. Our day drinks list is the product of a somelier, a bartender, and a chef sharing their favourite hangover cures, health tonics, and celebratory tipples. Let us know if there's something we can make for you that isn't on our menu. If it works for us, it might just make it onto the list!

COCKTAILS

Here are our favourite drinks for helping us to take the edge off that hangover, or kickstart our weekend.

Belzan Bloody Mary 6.5 Parsley Absolut vodka, tomato, spices, dashi, celeriac, guindilla. Bloody Marys are the worlds most important drink, so we pay particular attention to detail here.
Blood Orange Spritz 6.5 Lillet Blanc, Campari, blood orange and sparkling wine. Over at Filter + Fox, we have probably made (drank) more Spritzes than any other drink, so we know a thing or two about them.
Espresso Martini 6.5 Absolut vodka, kahlua, tonka bean, chaff, fresh espresso. Trust us on this one. Chaff and tonka are the 'spro-tini's new bff.
The Garibaldi 6 Campari, mandarin, clementine. The Garibaldi is to brunch what Keenan was to Kel.
Corpse Bride 6.5 Monkey 47 gin, Lillet rosé, lemon, pamplemousse, pastis. Based on the Corpse Reviver #2, three taken in quick succession were said to "revive the corpse", but four may render him dead.
Little White Lie 6.5 Suze, Italicus rosolio di bergamotto, sparkling wine The Spagliato's caucasian cousin. A gentian and bergamot spritz.

Bourbon Peach Iced Tea 6.5 Woodford Reserve, white peach, honey tea, sage, lemon, soda This has the three essential components of a hangover drink: booze, vitamin C, and the ability to rid you of shame.

BEER/CIDER

We do two beers because that's all you'll ever need.

Light beer 2.5 Bright, crisp, Belgian pils. 4.2%
Dark beer 2.5 Malty, lightly hopped, German dunkel. 5%
Cidre Breton 4 Organic, cloudy, delicious Brittany juice. 5%
Shandy 2.5 We just thought we'd leave this here. Because, well, it's delicious.
